Hunter Children's Court Assistance Scheme

Providing INFORMATION, SUPPORT, EDUCATION & REFERRALS to young people and their families attending court.

WHAT IS HCCAS (Hunter Children's Court Assistance Scheme)?

HCCAS provides support to young people and their families who are attending children's court in the Hunter Region including Broadmeadow, Maitland and Raymond Terrace. We can also support young people at different Courts by arrangement.

INFORMATION

Going to court can be a very daunting experience. HCCAS can give you information about:

- What to bring with you to court.
- What to do when you get to court on the day.
- Who will be at court.
- How to get legal advice at court.
- What your rights and responsibilities are throughout the court process.
- What to expect in the courtroom.
- What different court decisions mean.

SUPPORT

HCCAS provides support to young people and their families who are attending Children's Court in the Hunter Region.

We attend the following Courts on List Days:

- Newcastle Children's Court.
- Maitland.
- Raymond Terrace.

EDUCATION

The HCCAS is available to provide community legal education seminars and workshops to young people, schools and youth advocates on a range of legal issues. For further information, please contact the HCCAS.

REFERRAL

HCCAS can make referrals for you to services that may be able to help with a range of issues, including:

- Accommodation.
- Counseling.
- Anger Management.
- Education and Training.
- Youth Groups and Activities.
- Employment and job searching.
- Family Mediation.
- Drug and Alcohol problems.
- Relationship Problems.
- Mental Health.
